MEDIA INFORMATION

On behalf of the Anaheim Ducks, welcome to the 2009-10 National Hockey League (NHL) season. We hope to make your job covering the Ducks as easy and pleasant as possible. In order to help you achieve your goals in the most efficient manner, we have a few procedural guidelines of which you should be aware.

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All season and individual game credential holders should enter through the press entrance off Douglass Avenue (Northeast corner of the building). The press entrance and press will-call opens two and one-half hours prior to all games. Credentials are non-transferable, and unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from Honda Center and result in a loss of credential privileges.

Season media passes will be issued to recognized newspapers, magazines, television and established radio stations as well as websites affiliated with major broadcast outlets. Requests for credentials must be made on company letterhead. As mandated by the NHL, credentials will be distributed on an individual basis. Season pass holders must notify the communications office of their intentions to cover a game in order to reserve press seating.

Individual game credentials should be requested in writing through the communications department (e-mail or fax) a minimum of 24 hours prior to game time or by 2:00 p.m. Friday for all Saturday or Sunday contests. Our fax number is (714) 940-2925. If you have previously received credentials from our office, you can also email requests to agilchrist@anaheimducks.com. Pre-arranged passes must be picked up at the press entrance located inside the northeast entrance. Credentials will be issued on an availability-only basis.

Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, press box, press dining room and both locker rooms. We suggest coming to the morning skate if you need an interview before the game. Both teams' locker rooms will open five minutes after the last player has left the ice, following the game's conclusion. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIODS.

Interviews that need advance preparation or special accommodation can be arranged by contacting the Ducks communications department. This includes all live television interviews for pre and post-game.

Photo credentials will also be issued in the same manner as other passes, with camera positions assigned by team photographer Debora Robinson; photographers should check in with Debora in the press dining room prior to game time.

Facsimile and photocopy services are available by contacting the Ducks communications department prior to the game.

On game days when the Ducks choose to practice, they will take the ice at 10:00 or 10:30 a.m. The visiting team's practice usually starts at 11:30 a.m. Please call the Ducks communications department if there is a question regarding either team's practice schedule. ALL requests for in-between period interviews must be made by the time of the Ducks' skate that morning.

We hope this outline of procedures and guidelines will assist you in your coverage of the Ducks and the National Hockey League at Honda Center for the 2009-10 season. Please don't hesitate to contact us if you need any additional assistance. We look forward to working with you this season.

Sincerely,
Alex Gilchrist

HENRY & SUSAN SAMUELI

ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC & ANAHEIM ARENA MANAGEMENT, LLC

Susan Samueli was born and raised in Los Angeles, CA. She earned a B.A. in Mathematics from UC Berkeley in 1972. From 1972 to 1985 she was with IBM Corporation, where she worked initially as a software programmer in the Federal Systems Division, Westlake Village, CA, and then as a Systems Engineer in the National Marketing Division, Los Angeles, CA, providing technical marketing and sales support for IBM's mid-range computer systems. In 1985 she left IBM and focused her energy on raising her children, at which time she developed a keen interest in alternative health care. She developed an active consulting practice in the areas of nutrition, homeopathy, and Chinese herbs and subsequently received a Ph.D. degree in nutrition from the American Holistic College of Nutrition in 1993 and a diploma in Homeopathy from the British Institute of Homeopathy in 1994.

Henry Samueli was born in Buffalo, NY and grew up in Los Angeles, CA. He earned a B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in Electrical Engineering from UCLA in 1975, 1976 and 1980, respectively. From 1980-1985, he worked in the defense industry and held various engineering and management positions in the Electronics and Technology Division of TRW, Inc., Redondo Beach, CA. Since 1985 Dr. Samueli has been a professor in the Electrical Engineering Department at UCLA, and he has also served as a Distinguished Adjunct Professor in the Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Department at UC Irvine since 2003. In 1988 he co-founded PairGain Technologies, a telecommunications equipment manufacturer, and served as a consultant and Chief Scientist of the company until 1994. In 1991 he co-founded Broadcom Corporation, a global leader in providing semiconductor solutions for wired and wireless communications. Dr. Samueli took a leave of absence from UCLA in 1995 to be at Broadcom full-time, where he helps drive the vision of the company's research and development activities. He has published over 100 technical papers and he is a named inventor in over 50 U.S. patents. Broadcom had revenues of $4.7 billion in 2008 and employed over 7,000 people worldwide at year end.

In December 2003, Susan and Henry purchased the management contract for the Honda Center sports and entertainment venue, creating Anaheim Arena Management, LLC, to oversee all operations of the arena. In June 2005 they purchased the Anaheim Ducks National Hockey League club, Honda Center's largest tenant. In 2005 and 2008 Honda Center was ranked as the third-largest grossing arena in the world in concert ticket sales, and in 2007 the Anaheim Ducks became the first California team ever to win the Stanley Cup championship.

The success of Broadcom Corporation has also provided Susan and Henry the opportunity to support many worthwhile nonprofit organizations. After Broadcom's initial public offering in 1998 they created the Samueli Foundation, and to date, they have gifted over $200 million in the areas of Education, Health, Social Services, Performing Arts, and Jewish Culture. In 2003 and 2004 Susan and Henry were listed among BusinessWeek's 50 Most Generous Philanthropists in the nation.

Since relocating to Orange County, CA in 1995, Susan and Henry have become very active in the community. Susan is on the boards of the Orangewood Children's Foundation, Temple Beth El, and the Samueli Institute, a non-profit scientific research organization they founded in 2001 focused on complementary and integrative medicine and the science of healing. Susan also serves on the Advisory Board of the Susan Samueli Center for Integrative Medicine at UC Irvine's College of Medicine. A native of California, Michael and his wife Sherry have four children (Annie, Danielle, Bryant and Natasha) and currently reside in Laguna.

BOB MURRAY

Executive Vice President and General Manager
Anaheim Ducks Hockey Club, LLC

Bob Murray enters his 35th consecutive year in the National Hockey League, his second as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Anaheim Ducks. He was named to his current position on Nov. 12, 2008 after spending the previous three-plus seasons as the club's Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations.

After taking over as Executive Vice President and General Manager, Murray made several changes to the roster that led to a dramatic turnaround. Among others, Murray acquired Ryan Whitney, James Wisniewski and Mike Brown in making the club a young, faster and more athletic club. The Ducks charged down the stretch with a 10-2-1 record to make the playoffs for the fourth consecutive season. Anaheim then defeated the Presidents' Trophy-winning San Jose Sharks in the Western Conference Quarterfinals, becoming the fifth team in the expansion era (1967-68) to upset the league's top regular season team in the first round. The Ducks then fell to Detroit in a dramatic, seven game series in the Conference Semifinals. Murray's teams have now been in the playoffs eight consecutive seasons, four with Vancouver (2001-2004) and the last four with the Ducks (2006-2009).

Over the summer, Murray continued to revamp the club with the acquisition of forwards Saku Koivu and Joffrey Lupul. The Ducks enter the 2009-10 campaign with a potential top-six forward group that includes Koivu, Lupul, Ryan Getzlaf, Corey Perry, Bobby Ryan and Teemu Selanne. Each of those six players scored at least 50 points last season, and four of them are 26-years-old or younger.

Prior to being named Executive Vice President and General Manager, Murray was the club's Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations for three-plus seasons. He was named to the post on July 14, 2005. In this role, he reported directly to Executive Vice President and General Manager Brian Burke. Much of Murray's work behind the scenes under Burke led directly to many successful trades and other player transactions by Anaheim. During that three-year period, the Ducks won a Stanley Cup (2007), a Pacific Division title (2007), and qualified for the playoffs each season.

Murray's previous responsibilities as Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations included overseeing all aspects of player development, serving as General Manager of Anaheim's American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate (previously Portland and Iowa). Murray was the General Manager of the Portland Pirates of the AHL from 2005-06 through 2007-08. The Pirates went to the Conference Finals twice (2006 & 2008), appearing in six playoff rounds. Between 2005 and 2008 (three seasons), Anaheim and Portland combined to win 10 and appear in 14 playoff rounds over the last three seasons, both the most of any organization in hockey.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Murray worked as a Professional Scout with the Vancouver Canucks from 1999 to 2005 under then-General Manager Brian Burke (1998-2004). Murray's scouting expertise helped to build teams that recorded 100+ point season two years in a row (2002-03 and 2003-04) and advanced to the Stanley Cup Playoffs four seasons in a row (2001-04). Before his stint in Vancouver, he served as a Scouting Consultant for Anaheim during the 1998-99 season.

Murray was a member of the Chicago Blackhawks organization for 25 years, serving as General Manager from 1997-99. He was named the sixth General Manager in team history on July 3, 1997. He was promoted to the post after serving as Assistant General Manager under Bob Pulford for two seasons. Before joining upper-management, Murray was named the Director of Player Personnel in 1991 and was largely responsible for the club's NHL Entry Draft selections over eight seasons.

Drafted by the Blackhawks in 1974, Murray spent his entire 1,008-game, 15-year career in a Chicago uniform. He became just the fourth player in Blackhawks history to reach the 1,000-game plateau. In addition, he became the first defenseman in club history to appear in 100 postseason contests, reaching the mark during the 1990 Stanley Cup Playoffs. In all, Murray scored 132-382=514 points and currently ranks second in all-time points among Blackhawk defensemen (13th overall in club history). He was named to both the 1981 and 1983 NHL All-Star Games. Murray retired at the conclusion of the 1989-90 season. Known for his work ethic, intelligence and determination as a player, Murray remained with the organization as a Professional Scout following his retirement in 1990.

TIM RYAN

President/Chief Executive Officer, Anaheim Arena Management, LLC

Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer, Anaheim Ducks Hockey Club, LLC

Tim Ryan enters his fifth season as Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer for the Anaheim Ducks. Since being named to his current post in the summer of 2005, Ryan has led the club to record levels of success in virtually every area of business operations. In addition to record ticket and sponsorship sales, Ryan has led aggressive community and fan development programs aimed at improved education, health and well-being, and recreation in the Southern California market. In response to the club's efforts, ESPN the Magazine ranked the Ducks highly in each of the last three "Ultimate Standings" editions, which measures the overall success of each franchise with respect to fan relations. Over that three-year period (2006-09), the Ducks average ranking is No. 1 in the NHL and No. 4 in all of professional sports.

Ryan is now in his 17th year with Honda Center and 31st in arena management and event creation. In addition to his duties with the NHL club, he serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Anaheim Arena Management, LLC (AAM). In his role, Ryan oversees one of the premier entertainment and sports venues in the United States. Through mid-year 2009 Pollstar Magazine ranked Honda Center second in the entire Pacific Time Zone for live entertainment. The facility is also seven time finalist for "Venue of the Year" in the United States as selected by Pollstar editors.

Through strategic planning, business development and event production, Ryan ensures the arena is active with a variety of first-class events. Under his guidance, the arena recently hosted the hugely successful North American Premier of Star Wars: In Concert as well some of the world's top names in entertainment. Honda Center has also been home to the 2003 World Gymnastics Championships, 2005 World Badminton Championships, the annual John R. Wooden Classic, five NCAA men's basketball tournament events (including the first two rounds in 2008) and the first Frozen Four west of the Rocky Mountains in 1999. Honda Center has also been home to a variety of professional sports teams, including indoor soccer, arena football and indoor lacrosse, while regularly hosting performances by world-renowned musical artists and family entertainment for Orange County and Southern California fans. Since 1993, over 27 million people have been entertained at Honda Center, enjoying more than 2,700 events.

As Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer of the Anaheim Ducks, Ryan oversees all business operations of the professional hockey team. He assumed his current dual roles on June 20, 2005 when the Ducks were purchased by Dr. Henry and Susan Samueli, owners of AAM. In four seasons, the Ducks have played to Honda Center crowds at 96.3% of capacity, selling out 123 games. The Ducks also had a 78-game sellout streak from 2006-08, and recorded the two largest crowds in club history this past season. The club hosted 17,601 fans in Game 4 vs. Detroit (Conference Semifinals) on May 7, 2009 and had a crowd of 17,597 vs. Philadelphia on Jan. 2, 2009.

Ryan has also spearheaded several initiatives from the Samuelis, including charitable programs that support approximately 500 non-profit organizations annually and an expanded grass-roots marketing program. The Anaheim Ducks recently launched THE RINKS program, which supports and promotes youth ice and roller hockey in Southern California. The blossoming program includes youth hockey leagues at Anaheim ICE, Huntington Beach, Corona, and Westminster. The club also launched the first-ever Orange County High School Hockey League in 2008 and has developed an education-based youth hockey program (S.C.O.R.E. – scholastic curriculum of recreation and education) that reaches 25,000 local school children.

In 1992, after a long career at the Long Beach Arena, Ryan joined the then Arrowhead Pond of Anaheim as Assistant General Manager. He was promoted to General Manager in 1998 and was named Pollstar Magazine "Facility Executive of the Year" for 2001. Near the end of 2003, the management contract for the arena was purchased by Anaheim Arena Management, LLC and Ryan was named President/CEO of both the company and the arena.

In addition to managing the 19,000-seat arena, Ryan is active in both the entertainment industry and in the local community. He helped to establish ArenaNetwork, an association that strives to increase the volume of business for its members. He also serves on the boards of several non-profit groups, including Big Brothers Big Sisters of Orange County, Los Angeles Sports Council, Orangewood Children's Foundation, Stars and Stripes Tournament, Tiger Woods Foundation and Tiger Woods Learning Center.

Ryan graduated from California State University, Long Beach in 1979 with a Bachelor's Degree in Finance. He lives with his wife Michele in Huntington Beach and enjoys golf, fly-fishing and skiing.

Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations
Anaheim Ducks Hockey Club, LLC

An original member of the Ducks, David McNab was promoted to Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations for the club on Nov. 18, 2008. He is now in his 32nd year in the NHL and 17th with Anaheim. McNab previously served as Anaheim's Assistant General Manager for 14 seasons. His duties include overseeing all aspects of player development, having an expertise on the new Collective Bargaining Agreement and its relationship to the salary cap in the NHL, contract and arbitration negotiation, player evaluation and scouting.

McNab's impact on the Ducks is significant. Anaheim has appeared in Stanley Cup Final twice (2003 & 2007) in the last six NHL seasons, including a championship in 2007. The club has won 10 playoff rounds since 2003, equaling the most in the NHL (also Detroit). In recent years, McNab scouted and signed collegiate free agents Andy McDonald, Chris Kunitz, Dustin Penner, Ryan Shannon, Ryan Carter and Curtis Glencross.

Prior to being named as the Ducks' Assistant General Manager in December of 1995, the 53-year-old McNab was the club's first Director of Player Personnel and was largely responsible for the team's selections in the 1994-96 NHL Entry and Supplemental Drafts. McNab has also held the position as General Manager of the Ducks' top farm team in the American Hockey League for six seasons (the Baltimore Bandits during the 1996-97 season and the Cincinnati Mighty Ducks from 1997-2002) while also working on the AHL's competition committee for many of those years.

Considered to be one of the hardest working and knowledgeable scouts in the National Hockey League, McNab began his professional scouting career in 1978 with the Washington Capitals, where he spent four seasons. In 1982, McNab was signed by the Hartford Whalers, where he spent seven seasons as a scout, the last two as the Director of Player Recruitment. He then joined the New York Rangers in 1989, where he worked for four seasons before leaving to join the Disney-owned Ducks in 1993. His work with the Rangers helped the club to the 1994 Stanley Cup championship.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin in 1978 with a degree in Communication Arts, McNab was also a goaltender on one of the greatest college hockey teams of all-time, the 1977 University of Wisconsin Badgers' NCAA championship team. He was drafted by the St. Louis Blues in the ninth round of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft (151st overall). McNab has worked on numerous occasions for USA Hockey, both as an Assistant General Manager for the United States in the World Championships on three different occasions, as well as serving as a consultant for the 1984, 1988 and 1992 United States Olympic Teams. He has also been a three-time member of the selection committee that votes for the Hobey Baker Award, college hockey's version of the Heisman Trophy.

A member of one of the most respected families in the NHL, McNab is the son of the late Max McNab and brother of Peter McNab. Max played on the 1950 Stanley Cup champion Detroit Red Wings and was a former general manager with the Washington Capitals and New Jersey Devils. He was also a recipient of the 1998 Lester Patrick Award given annually for "outstanding service to hockey in the United States." Peter played in 954 NHL games, scoring 363 goals and 813 points in a 14-year career and currently ranks 107th all-time in goal scoring in the history of the National Hockey League. Peter is currently a broadcaster with the Colorado Avalanche.

David McNab was born in Vancouver, British Columbia, but grew up in San Diego, California and graduated from Point Loma High School in San Diego in 1973. He became a U.S. citizen in 1983. He and his wife, Kari, were married in Minneapolis, Minnesota in 1989 and have two daughters, Ali (18) and Erica (16). The McNab family resides in Yorba Linda, California.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

On October 2, 1992, Walt Disney Pictures released the hit movie "The Mighty Ducks" and created a new wave of excitement among the nation's youth and ice hockey. Starring Emilio Estevez and a band of kids who learn to play and win as a team, "The Mighty Ducks" grossed $51 million at the box office and served as the inspiration for the name of the Walt Disney Company's NHL club.

The original official team colors and logo were unveiled on June 7, 1993, and Mighty Ducks merchandise was immediately propelled into one of the top sellers in all of professional sports.

Purple, jade, silver and white were chosen as the team's colors while an attractive crest featuring a duck head-shaped hockey mask was chosen to give the club its own unique identity. As a testament to the logos popularity, the Ducks original jersey was named the "most fashionable" uniform in all of sports at the inaugural ESPY awards in 1997.

THIRD JERSEYS

As times changed, so did some of the Ducks looks throughout the team's first 12 seasons. The club has appeared in three different alternate jerseys over the years (each pictured). Anaheim's first alternate sweater was a cartoon Duck breaking through a sheet of ice. The club moved to a more classic approach with its next two sweaters, using black with dark plum, silver and white accenting as its color palate for the last alternate jersey worn during the 2003-04 and 2005-06 seasons.

A NEW LOOK UNVEILED

In the spring of 2005, Henry and Susan Samueli entered into an agreement with the Walt Disney Company to purchase the Ducks franchise. In the Samueli's first year of ownership, the Ducks set then-franchise records for overall wins (43) and standings points (98). Entering the 2006 Playoffs as the Western Conference's sixth seed, the Ducks upset the third-seeded Calgary Flames in a thrilling seven-game series and went on to sweep the Colorado Avalanche before losing to the Edmonton Oilers in the Western Conference Finals.

On June 22, 2006, a new era began for the franchise as the team became officially known as the Anaheim Ducks. In addition, a new logo and color scheme was unveiled. The new look and identity of the Ducks were a collaborative effort, mixing opinions of fans as well as Ducks players, ownership and management. All parties involved unanimously decided to go beyond simply altering the original concept of an aggressive duck character.

In shaping the new design, the focus was sharpened to create an overall image that expressed excitement, speed and a competitive edge. In addition, a classic color palette of black and metallic gold was developed, with an accent of orange as a metaphorical link to the team's Orange County home.

The result is a strong, typographic mark anchored by a stylized "D" that echoes the image of a duck's foot or footprint. The custom typography has a powerful forward momentum and is made up of metallic gold letters with orange drop-shadows and a black holding shape. The new uniforms are an evolution of the earlier sweater design but with gold, white and orange sweeping stripes influenced by the curves of the "D" in the Ducks logo.

Set with a new look for the 2006-07 season, the Ducks made history and won the Stanley Cup. The club also won its first-ever Pacific Division title, spending the final 72 games and 163 calendar days atop the division. Anaheim once again broke club records in wins (48) and standings points (110). The Ducks defeated Minnesota (4-1), Vancouver (4-1), Detroit (4-2) and Ottawa (4-1), becoming the first West Coast team to win the Stanley Cup since the 1925 Victoria Cougars and the first U.S. team on the West Coast to win it since the 1917 Seattle Metropolitans.

A TWIST ON THE NEW

For the 2007-08 season, the National Hockey League and Reebok teamed to create the Rbk EDGE Uniform System to meet the performance demands of today's NHL player. The result of more than two years of research and testing, the system features technologically advanced materials and fabrics that are more breathable, more water-resistant, more comfortable and more compatible with equipment.

The Rbk EDGE Uniform System is worn by all 30 NHL teams in their respective colors and designs. The introduction of this system marked the first time in the history of North American professional sports that a uniform innovation had been implemented League-wide.

DUX IN TUX

Every year, the Anaheim Ducks players leave their skates and sticks behind to take on a new role as "celebrity waiters" for the annual Dux in Tux presented by Honda. At Dux in Tux, the entire Ducks roster is on hand, looking their very best in tuxedos to treat the guests in attendance to a night of quality service and fine dining in support of the Anaheim Ducks Foundation.

This season's 10th annual Dux in Tux will help raise funds for the Anaheim Ducks Foundation and help bring awareness to the Ducks S.C.O.R.E. (Scholastic Curriculum of Recreation & Education) program, which offers free educational standards-based curriculum to students through in-class and physical education.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE SEASON:

The Ducks completed the 2007-08 regular season with a mark of 47-27-8 record for 102 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference…Anaheim eclipsed the 100-point mark for the second consecutive year, while setting new season club records for the fewest goals allowed (184) and most home wins (28)…Anaheim finished the year winning eight of its last 10 (8-2-0) and 15 of the last 20 games (15-4-1)…at Honda Center, the club went 12-1-0 in the last 13 games and 19-3-1 over the final 23 home contests…the club clinched a playoff berth for the third consecutive year and sixth time in franchise history on Mar. 26 vs. Los Angeles in a 2-1 shootout triumph.

DUCKS SELL OUT THE SEASON:

The Ducks' sellout vs. Phoenix on Apr. 6 (17,269) marked the club's 40th in 40 games at Honda Center in 2007-08, a complete sellout for the regular season…it was just the second time a local NHL team (Southern California market) had sold out a full (non-lockout) regular season…the 1991-92 Los Angeles Kings were the only other such team to do so at the 16,005-seat Forum…the Ducks set franchise attendance records last season for sellouts (40), average attendance (17,195) and percent capacity (100.12%)…the Ducks broke the team record for consecutive regular season sellouts on Feb. 22 against the St. Louis Blues when they surpassed the previous record of 51 straight regular season sellouts set from Dec. 22, 1993-Oct. 20, 1995...the Ducks finished the regular season with a sellout streak of 74 games, the third-longest active regular season sellout streak among U.S.-based NHL teams (behind only Minnesota and the NY Rangers).

WINNING AT HONDA CENTER:

The Ducks finished 28-9-4 at Honda Center in 2007-08, establishing a new franchise record for home wins in the regular season...the previous team record of 26 home wins was established during the 2005-06 season (26-10-5) and matched in the 2006-07 campaign (26-6-9)…the Ducks won a franchise-record 10 consecutive games at Honda Center from Feb. 17-Mar. 26, marking the longest home winning streak in the NHL in 2007-08.

THE TOP 10 LIST:

J.S. Giguere was one of only three goaltenders in the NHL in 2007-08 to rank among the top 10 in wins, goals-against average and save percentage...Giguere ranked second in GAA (2.12), third in SV% (.922) and tied for seventh in wins (35)...the only other two goaltenders who ranked among the top 10 in all three categories were New Jersey's Martin Brodeur and Minnesota's Niklas Backstrom.

HILLER SHINES:

Ducks goaltender Jonas Hiller closed the regular season on a strong note…from Mar. 1 through the end of the regular season, Hiller ranked second in the NHL with a .952 SV% (stopping 217-of-228 shots) and 1.55 GAA (11 GA/426 MIN) among goaltenders that played in at least five games (Hiller was 4-3-0 in those games).

WINNING WAYS:

Randy Carlyle (138-74-34) became Anaheim's winningest head coach in franchise history with a 2-1 victory over the New Jersey Devils on Feb. 8 at Prudential Center...Carlyle surpassed Ron Wilson's club record of 120 wins as a Ducks head coach with win No. 121 in his 223rd game behind the bench with Anaheim.

LEADERS BY ADDITION:

The Ducks went 20-5-1 after the return of right wing Teemu Selanne on Feb. 5 against the New York Islanders at Nassau Coliseum... the Ducks also had similar success when they welcomed the return of defenseman Scott Niedermayer and arrival of center Doug Weight...the Ducks owned the best winning percentage in the NHL after Selanne's return on Feb. 5 (.788) and the best winning percentage following Niedermayer's return on Dec. 16 (.708)...below is a closer look:

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

PLAYOFF BOUND

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 43-27-12, good for 98 standings points and a sixth place finish in the Western Conference…the club clinched a playoff spot on Apr. 10 @ VAN, the fourth post-season berth in club history.

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON

The Ducks set club-records in wins (43) and points (98), eclipsing the previous marks of 40 and 95, respectively, set in 2002-2003…Anaheim's 26 wins at HOME (26-10-5) also set a club-record, breaking the record of 23 in 1996-97 (23-12-6)…the Ducks also set club-records for goals scored with 251 (not including team goals awarded in shootouts) and power play goals with 87…all of these marks were broken again the next season (2006-2007).

STEADY CLIMB:

On Jan. 13, the Ducks were 10th in the Western Conference (19-16-7, 45 points) and eight points out of the last playoff spot (occupied at the time by Colorado)...from that point on, Anaheim had a record of 24-11-5 for 53 points…the Ducks became just the fourth NHL team to qualify for the playoffs when trailing the 8th place position by 8 points-or-more anytime after Jan. 1…the first three teams to do so were the NY Islanders (1993-94 – finished 7th) , Ottawa Senators (1996-97 – finished 7th) & Vancouver Canucks (2001-2002 – finished 8th)…the San Jose Sharks followed suit by becoming the fifth such team to accomplish the feat…the NHL standings switched to the current format in 1992-93.

ANOTHER GREAT SEASON:

Ducks Captain Scott Niedermayer established then career highs in points, assists and games played with 13-50=63 points in 82 games in 2005-2006...his assist and point totals were new franchise records for a defenseman (records he broke again the following season)... Niedermayer finished the season ranked 6th in the NHL in points and T-4th in assists by a defenseman...in his Norris Trophy winning season of 2003-04, Niedermayer scored 14-40=54 points in 81 games...in January, he was named to Canada's Olympic Team but elected not to play so he could have arthroscopic knee surgery during the Olympic Break...after the Olympic Break, he scored 4-17=21 points in 25 games in leading the Ducks to a 16-8-1 record...he was one of four Ducks' players to play in every game, marking the first time in his career he played all 82 games.

FLASHY FINN

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne scored 40-50=90 points in 80 games with a +28 rating…he led the Ducks in goals, points, plus/minus, power play goals (18) and shooting percentage (15.0%)…after leading Finland to the Silver Medal at the 2006 Winter Olympics (was named best forward in the tournament), Selanne had 14-22=36 points with a +8 rating in his last 25 games (only Thornton and Cheechoo of SJ had more points)… his 40 goals are the most he scored in one season since 1998-1999, when he scored 47...he finished the season ranked T-13th in the NHL in points, T-10th in goals.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

DUCKS COMPLETE BEST SEASON IN TEAM HISTORY:

The Mighty Ducks finished the 2002-2003 season with a record of 40-27-9-6 for 95 points, good for 2nd in the Pacific Division and 7th in the Western Conference (tied in points with Minnesota, who earned the #6 seed by virtue of two more wins)…Anaheim set club records for wins and points in one season, surpassing the old records held by the 1996-97 Ducks (36-33-13 for 85 points)...the Ducks also finished 13 games over .500, after never being more that five games over .500 at any point during a season until this year (high-water mark was 14 games over, 40-26-9-5 after winning Apr. 1 @ NSH)…the Ducks clinched their third playoff berth in team history (also '97 & '99) on Mar. 24, when Calgary defeated Phoenix at the Saddledome...about 90 minutes later that evening the Ducks made the Phoenix loss moot, completing a 5-0 shutout vs. Columbus at the Pond.

THESE CLUB RECORDS ALSO FELL:

The Ducks had their most successful season both at home and on the road…Anaheim finished 18-17-2-4 for 42 points on the road this season, the first season at or above .500 in team history away from home…the Ducks broke the mark for road points by earning their 42nd on Apr. 1 @ Nashville (1993-94 team had 41 points with a 19-20-3 record)…Anaheim finished just one win short of the road win record, also held by the 1993-94 team...at home, the Ducks broke the team record for points with 53, going 22-10-7-2...Anaheim finished one win shy of tying the club record for home victories (both HOME records were set in 1996-97, 23-12-6 for 52 points)...the Ducks also broke club records for lowest GAA (2.32, previous record was 2.39 set 2001-2002), fewest goals allowed (193, record was 198 set 2001-2002), power play goals allowed (42, record was 46 set 2001-2002) and penalty killing percentage (87.4%, record was 86.1% set 2001-2002).

QUITE A TURNAROUND STORY IN ANAHEIM:

The Mighty Ducks finished the regular season posting the largest improvement in the NHL…the Ducks improved by 26 points from 01-02 to 02-03…below is a closer look:

1997-98 SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season 26-43-13 for 65 points…the club went 6-7-4 over the last 17 games…Anaheim enjoyed the most success vs. the Atlantic Division, going 7-3-4 (.643 winning percentage) - marking the second best winning percentage vs. any division in franchise history (record is 66.7%, set in 1995-96 when the Ducks went 8-4-0 vs. the Northeast)…Anaheim had three players that ranked among NHL league leaders (including rookie leaders) in several categories (Selanne, Rucchin & Cullen)…the Mighty Ducks and Vancouver Canucks opened up their '97-98 NHL regular seasons with a two-game set in Tokyo on Oct. 3-4. The games marked the first NHL regular season contests outside of North America… Teemu Selanne's sensational season included an 11-game goal scoring streak, three hat tricks, 10 game-winning` goals, a club-record 13 goals in a month (November), a hat trick in the All-Star game, a Bronze Medal at the Winter Olympics, and a league-leading 52 goals (tied with Peter Bondra)… Selanne also became just the fourth player in NHL history to record at least 25% of his teams goals in one season…Paul Kariya suffered a season-ending concussion on Feb. 1 vs. Chicago and appeared in only 22 games on the season.

1995-96 SEASON:

Final Record: 35-39-8, 78 points (fourth, Pacific)... nearly qualified for a Western Conference playoff spot (the Ducks actually finished tied-for-8th in the conference with Winnipeg, but lost the tie breaker because the Jets had more wins)...Anaheim's 35 wins and 78 points marked new club records for one season...the Mighty Ducks finished out the season strong, going 6-1-1 in their last eight games and 12-3-2 in their last 17 games...the Ducks did a lot of their late-season damage at home, going 11-1-2 in their last 14 home games…Anaheim also had a 15-6-3 record in the last 24 contests and a 17-8-3 record in the last 28...the Ducks went 33-31-8 over the last 72 games after starting the season 2-8-0...the Mighty Ducks' home record was 22-15-4 (22 home wins was a franchise record for one season)...Anaheim ended the season with a club-record nine-game home unbeaten streak (8-0-1)...the Ducks went 11-1-2 in their last 14 at the Arrowhead Pond and 13-5-3 in their last 21...road record was 13-23-4...Anaheim had one of the best records in the NHL since March 1 (12-4-3); the second-best in the Western Conference… the Mighty Ducks earned 34.6% of their points on the season in the team's 19 games after March 1...Paul Kariya became the first Mighty Duck to make First Team NHL All Star, earning a spot on the 1995-96 squad at left wing. He also won the Lady Byng Trophy for the first time in his career...Here are a few facts of how Anaheim's acquisition of Teemu Selanne affected the Mighty Ducks…after Feb. 7, the day the trade went down: Anaheim earned a record of 17-9-3 (11-1-2 at home, 6-8-1 on the road)...the team earned club-records in overall winning streak (six games, Mar. 8-22), home winning streak (five games, Mar. 8-Apr. 3), home unbeaten streak (Mar. 8-Apr. 14, 8-0-1) and overall unbeaten streak (seven games, 6-0-1, Mar. 10-24)...the Ducks' power play went 29-145 for a .200 success rate (team had only gone 31-281 for .110 before trade)...Anaheim had three hat tricks (two by Selanne, one by Garry Valk). The Ducks had only one in their history before the arrival of Selanne (Terry Yake - Oct. 19, 1993 @ NYR)...Selanne's offensive numbers with Anaheim were 16-20=36 points in 28 appearances (1.29 points-per-game)...Paul Kariya's offensive numbers were 21-23=44 points in 29 appearances (1.52 points-per-game) after Selanne joined Anaheim...The Mighty Ducks were one of only three NHL clubs (also Colorado and Pittsburgh) to finish with two players in the top eight scoring leaders in 1995-96 (Paul Kariya, 50-58=108 pts. and Teemu Selanne, 40-68=108 pts.)...Anaheim was one of only eight teams in the NHL with a .900-plus team save percentage (.906) and a team goals-against-average (GAA) below 3.00 (2.97)…Anaheim finished tied-for-fifth in the league in save percentage and 10th in the league in GAA…Anaheim goaltending combined for a .952 save percentage and 2.08 GAA in 19 games from March 1 to the end of the season…Individually, Guy Hebert finished fourth in the league in save percentage with .914 on the season and tied-for-fifth in the league in shutouts with four (three of which came in his last 14 games).

In just his second season, center Ryan Getzlaf was one of the more prolific scorers throughout the Ducks postseason run...he earned 7-10=17 points in 21 postseason contests, eclipsing his point total in the 2006 Stanley Cup Playoffs by 10 points (3-4=7)...Getzlaf led the club in scoring, was 2nd in goal scoring and 5th in the NHL in postseason scoring...in addition, he was T-2nd in the NHL in game-winning goals (3) and short-handed goals (1)...he also had a two-game goal streak (2-0=2) May 22-28 and scored three goals in the last six games (3-3=6)...Getzlaf collected 4-4=8 points in the last eight playoff games and 4-6=10 points in the last 11 games.

S. NIEDERMAYER SHINES IN OT:

On May 3 in the CSF, defenseman Scott Niedermayer scored the series-clinching OT goal against the Vancouver Canucks in the CSF...it was the first OT goal of his postseason career, while also holding the all-time regular season OT goal record among defensemen with 10...he added a second postseason OT goal, just 10 days after the first, on May 13 at Detroit in Game Two of the WCF (4-3 victory)...in addition, on May 20 in Game 5 of the WCF at Detroit, Niedermayer scored the game-tying goal with 48 seconds left before Teemu Selanne scored in OT to give the Ducks a crucial 2-1 victory...Niedermayer tied the record for most OT goals by a defenseman in one playoff year:

MOST OVERTIME GOALS BY DEFENSEMAN IN ONE PLAYOFF YEAR

Year	Player	Team	Goals
2007	Scott Niedermayer	Anaheim	2
2002	Niclas Wallin	Carolina	2
1995	Chris Chelios	Chicago	2
1950	Leo Reise, Jr.	Detroit	2

CHECKING LINE BECOMES SCORING LINE:

The Ducks line combination of Samuel Pahlsson-Rob Niedermayer-Travis Moen was the Ducks checking line all season, but in addition to their defensive responsibilities, all three became prolific scorers in the postseason...the line combined for 15-19=31 points in 21 postseason games, including six GWGs...Moen recorded the game-winner in Game Five of the SCF on June 6 vs. OTT (also recorded the first two-goal game of his postseason career) and the OT goal in Game Four of the CSF on May 1 @ VAN…in addition, he also scored the game-winner in Game One of the SCF vs. OTT...Pahlsson had two game-winners (May 30 vs. OTT in Game Two of the SCF, 1-0 victory and May 22 vs. DET in Game Six of the WCF, 5-3 victory) and R. Niedermayer had one game-winner (Apr. 15 vs. MIN in Game Three of the CQF)...the trio recorded a combined +24 rating throughout the 2007 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

PRONGER AT THE TOP OF HIS GAME:

In 19 postseason contests, Chris Pronger scored 3-11=14 points, which tied for 2nd on the team and 2nd in the NHL among defensemen…he was also T-7th in overall scoring, T-4th in overall assists and T-3rd in power play assists…the 2007 Stanley Cup Playoffs marked the 11th year he appeared in the postseason and recorded his second-highest career point total (5-16=21 points with EDM in 2005-06)…in addition, he was 4th in the NHL in avg. TOI with 30:11/g.

BATTLING BACK:

On May 1 @ VAN, the Ducks rallied from a 2-0 deficit in the third period, to eventually take the game in overtime...it marked the first time the club had successfully battled back from a two-goal deficit to win in postseason history...Travis Moen scored the game-winner, just over two minutes into the first overtime, marking his first career OT goal in the playoffs...with the Ducks' OT win, teams in the 2007 playoffs with a two-goal lead at any point in the game went 42-4...the only teams to come back from a two-goal deficit in the postseason are Detroit and Ottawa…Detroit rallied from two goals down twice to eventually beat San Jose 3-2 on both occasions (April 28 @ DET and May 2 @ SJ)…Ottawa came back from a two-goal deficit to win in double OT, 4-3 against Buffalo (May 12 @ BUF).

BROTHERS TEAMING UP WHEN IT COUNTS:

Brothers Scott and Rob Niedermayer both had vital roles in three of the Ducks' playoff victories...on May 3 in their series-clinching game vs. Vancouver in the CSF, Rob's hit on Jannik Hansen helped to turn the puck over for Scott's OT goal against Roberto Luongo...on May 13 at Detroit in the WCF, Rob had the first assist on Scott's second OT goal in as many games...in Game One of the Stanley Cup Final on May 28 vs. Ottawa, both Rob and Scott assisted on Travis Moen's game-winning goal as the Ducks held onto a 3-2 victory.

DEFENSE FIRST:

The Ducks allowed just 45 goals in 21 2007 Stanley Cup Playoff games…the club allowed an average of 2.14 goals-per-game, good for 3rd in the NHL in the postseason.

TOI... the only other playoff team that had three players in the top 10 in avg. TOI was Vancouver (Ohlund, 6th; Bieksa, 9th; Kesler, 10th), which was eliminated by Anaheim in the CSF on May 3.

SELANNE BREAKS YET ANOTHER CLUB RECORD:

On April 13 vs. MIN in Game Two of the CQF, Teemu Selanne's assist broke Paul Kariya's franchise record for career points in the postseason...he broke the club's playoff goals record May 23, 2006 @ EDM, scoring his 15th career postseason goal as a Duck.

BEAUCHEMIN REPEATS FEAT:

Francois Beauchemin's two goals April 13 vs. MIN marked the third time in club history a Ducks defenseman had scored two goals in a playoff game...Beauchemin has done it twice, also scoring two goals on April 25, 2006 vs. CGY (Game 3)...the only other Ducks defenseman to score two goals in a playoff game was J.J. NIGHT OWLS:

The Ducks' double-overtime, series-clinching win on May 3 vs. VAN in Game Five of the CSF was the club's seventh multiple-overtime game in club history...the Ducks have gone 4-3 in those seven games...the club's last multiple overtime game before May 3 came on April 27 in Game Two of the CSF vs. VAN (3-2, Cowan GWG).

HATCHING HEAD COACHES IN ANAHEIM:

Of the four teams that competed in the Western Conference Semifinals, three were led by coaches who received their NHL head coaching start in Anaheim...Ron Wilson (SJ) served as Anaheim's head coach from 1993-97, while Mike Babcock made his head coaching debut with the Ducks from 2002-04...Randy Carlyle has coached the Ducks for the past two seasons, helping the team advance to the Stanley Cup Playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history...Vancouver's head coach, Alain Vigneault, the only CSF coach to have not served in Anaheim, succeeded Carlyle as the head coach of the Manitoba Moose (AHL) in 2005…in addition, another Anaheim connection existed in the Stanley Cup Final…Ottawa head coach Bryan Murray was the head coach of the Ducks in 2001-2002, before taking over as GM of the club (2002-2004).

DUCKS SET PLAYOFF TEAM MARKS:

The Ducks set a club record for goals in a playoff season, scoring 46 times in 2006…other notable team records set in 2006, were most goals in a playoff game (6 @ EDM on 5/25), goals in a period (4, twice in 2006), penalty minutes in a playoff season (267) and penalty minutes in a series (vs. CGY)…the club also tied the mark for playoff goals in a series (17, vs. CGY; also vs. PHX in 1997).

ROOKIES MAKE THEIR MARK:

Of the 128 team points (48-80=128) the Ducks scored during the postseason, Anaheim rookies accounted for 12-25=37 of them (28.9%)...the 37 rookie points were the most in one playoff year since the 1993 Los Angeles Kings had 40 rookie points...of the 16 goals the Ducks scored in the Western Conference Semifinals series versus Colorado, three were scored by rookies and all but three figured a rookie on the score sheet...the last time a team had six rookies play a game in the Conference Finals was the 1991 Boston Bruins (although only one, Jeff Lazaro, played all six games of the series).

TWO STILL PLAYING:

Anaheim was the only NHL organization to have both their NHL team and AHL affiliate reach each respective league's conference final...The Portland Pirates clinched the Atlantic Division Final Series, defeating the Hartford Wolfpack four games to two to advance to the Eastern Conference Final, where they fell to the Hershey Bears 4-3.

SIX IN A ROW:

With their Western Conference Semifinal series-clinching win in Game 4 (May 11) versus COL, the Ducks tied the franchise record for consecutive playoff victories with six...the record was set during the 2003 postseason from 4/10/03-4/26/03...the Ducks swept Detroit in the conference quarterfinals and won their first two games at Dallas in the conference semifinals.

13 UNANSWERED:

The Ducks scored 13 unanswered goals, from Game 6 (May 1) versus Calgary in the Western Conference Quarterfinals to Game 3 (May 9) versus Colorado in the Western Conference Semifinals...the Flames scored at 10:18 of the first period and the Ducks scored 13 goals without allowing a goal against until Dan Hinote scored at 19:33 of the first period in Game 3...The last team to score 13 or more unanswered goals in the postseason was Detroit with 14 from 5/15/95-5/23/95.

MARCHANT TIES RECORD:

Ducks center Todd Marchant tied the club record for most assists in a playoff game with three in Game 4 (May 25) of the Western Conference Finals at Edmonton...the feat had been accomplished three times previously (Dustin Penner, 5/9/06 @ COL, Steve Rucchin, 4/21/99 @ DET and Petr Sykora, 4/26/03 @ DAL).

NOBODY BEATS THE BRYZ:

Ilya Bryzgalov tied an NHL record with three consecutive shutouts (done five times previously) in Game 7 of the Conference Quarterfinals versus Calgary (May 3), Game 1 (May 5) and Game 2 (May 7) of the Conference Semifinal versus Colorado... In addition Bryzgalov's shutout sequence of 249:15, is the second-longest in NHL postseason history and is the longest ever by a rookie. Gerry McNeil previously held the rookie record at 218:42...Bryzgalov stopped 98 consecutive shots.

Streak	Goaltender	Team	Dates
270:08	George Hainsworth	Canadiens	3/28-4/3, 1930
249:15	Ilya Bryzgalov	Ducks	5/3-5/7, 2006
248:35	Dave Kerr	Rangers	3/25-4/6, 1937
248:32	Normie Smith	Red Wings	3/24-28, 1936
218:42	Gerry McNeil	Canadiens	3/27-31, 1951
217:54	J.S. Giguere	Ducks	5/5-16, 2003

FIRST IN 61 YEARS:

In Game 1 (May 5) versus COL, Ducks goaltender Ilya Bryzgalov became the first rookie to record consecutive shutouts in the playoffs since 1945...the last rookie goaltender to post consecutive shutouts in the postseason was Toronto's Frank McCool in April of 1945…McCool had three consecutive shutouts versus Detroit on April 6, 8 and 12...Bryzgalov tied him for the rookie record.

ANOTHER ONE FOR BRYZ:

Ilya Bryzgalov is only the fourth rookie goaltender to win all four games of a playoff series sweep...the others are Chicago's Tony Esposito in 1970 vs. Detroit; Montreal's Jacques Plante in 1954 vs. Boston; Montreal's Bill Durnan in the 1944 Stanley Cup Finals versus Chicago.

BRYZ SHUTS THE DOOR:

Ilya Bryzgalov's shutout in Game 7 (May 3) of the Western Conference Quarterfinals at Calgary was the first shutout by a rookie in a Game 7 since May 15, 1993, when Felix Potvin of Toronto shutout St. Louis...in addition, it was only the third shutout in a Game 7 by a rookie in NHL history as the New York Islanders' Chico Resch was the first goalie to do so in 1975 at Pittsburgh...Bryzgalov led the NHL in GAA (1.46), SV% (.944) and shutouts (3).

SELANNE WITH ANOTHER DUCK RECORD:

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne had points in seven straight playoff games (Apr. 23-May 5), scoring 4-5=9 points, tying a club record for longest playoff point streak (also, Dmitri Mironov (0-8=8 points), Apr. 24-May 8, 1997).

PENNER IN THE FRANCHISE RECORD BOOK:

With three assists in Game 3 (May 9) of the Conference Semifinals versus Colorado, Ducks left wing Dustin Penner tied the franchise record for most assists in a playoff game (done twice previously, Steve Rucchin, 4/21/99 @ DET and Petr Sykora, 4/26/03 @ DAL)...his three assists are the first ever recorded by a rookie in a single playoff game in team history.

RALLY:

Anaheim's Western Conference Quarterfinal win versus Calgary marked the second time the club has ever rallied from a series deficit to win (also 1997, down 3-2 vs. PHX, won series 4-3).

DECIDING RECORD:

With their 3-0 victory in Game 7 (May 3) of the Western Conference Quarterfinal at Calgary, the Ducks improved their record in Game 7s to 2-1...the win at Calgary was the Ducks' first series clinching game on the road...in their first ever Game 7 (April 29) versus Phoenix in the 1997 Conference Quarterfinals, the Ducks won 3-0...in Game 7 (June 9) of the 2003 Stanley Cup Finals, the Ducks dropped a 3-0 decision to the New Jersey Devils.

PERFECT IN GAME 6:

With a 2-1 victory in Game 6 (May 1) in Anaheim, the Ducks extended their perfect record in Game 6s to four games...below is a list:

Date	Series	Opponent Score
May 1, 2006	CQF vs. CGY	W, 2-1
June 7, 2003	SCF vs. NJ	W, 5-2
May 5, 2003	CSF vs. DAL	W, 4-3
April 27, 1997	CQF @ PHX	W, 3-2 (OT)

TWO FOR THE ROOKIES:

Mighty Ducks defenseman Francois Beauchemin's two goals (both PPGs) in Game 3 of the Western Conference Quarterfinals set a club record for goals in a playoff game by a rookie...in addition, he tied the club record for most goals in a playoff game (eight times previously), most goals by a defenseman in a playoff game (J.J. Daigneault, Game 2 of CQF, April 18, 1997) and most power play goals in a playoff game (Adam Oates, Game 4 of WCF, May 16, 2003)...Dustin Penner tied the record with two goals in Game 4 (May 25) of the Western Conference Finals.

OH WHAT A NIGHT:

In Game 3 (May 9) at Colorado in the Western Conference Semifinals, Joffrey Lupul scored all four of the Ducks goals, including the game-winner in overtime...in doing so, he became the first player in NHL playoff history to score four goals, including the overtime winner...the four-goal game was the first ever by a Ducks player in the postseason or regular season...he's the first player to account for all four of his team's goals in a win since Maurice "Rocket" Richard did so on March 23, 1944...the feat had been accomplished twice previously...prior to Lupul's four goals, the last player to score four goals in a playoff game was Theo Fleury on May 13, 1995 for the Flames in a 6-4 win over San Jose...below is a list of players to account for all four of their teams goals:

PLAYERS TO SCORE 4+ GOALS, ACCOUNTING FOR ALL HIS TEAM'S GOALS (NHL PLAYOFF HISTORY)

Date	Teams	Goals
05/09/2006	ANA 4 vs COL 3	Joffrey Lupul 4 (win)
04/26/1993	NYI 4 at WAS 6	Ray Ferraro 4 (loss)
04/10/1986	CHI 4 vs TOR 6	Denis Savard 4 (loss)
03/23/1944	MTL 5 vs TOR 1	Rocket Richard 5 (win)
03/22/1919	MTL 4 at SEA 2	Newsy Lalonde 4 (win)

LUPUL'S BIG NIGHT:

Ducks right wing Joffrey Lupul became the first Ducks player to score four goals in a playoff or regular season game...in addition, Lupul broke the playoff record for goals in a series; he had six in four games in the Western Conference Semifinal series versus Colorado (Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne each had five goals in the 1997 Conference Quarterfinals versus Phoenix, seven games)...he has also eclipsed the record for goals in a playoff season with nine (seven was the previous record, done three times: Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne in 1997, 11 games; and Steve Rucchin, 2003, 21 games)...his three-game goal streak (6-0=6) from May 7-11, is the longest goal streak in club playoff history.

Ducks Capture First Western Conference Championship:

The Ducks finished the 2003 playoffs with a record of 15-6, recording the highest winning percentage in the NHL (.714)…the Ducks had a 9-1 record at home during the playoffs, second only to New Jersey's 12-1 mark…Anaheim swept the Minnesota Wild to win the Western Conference Championship, advancing to the Stanley Cup Finals for the first time in club history… the Ducks became the second post 1990's expansion team to reach the Finals, following the Florida Panthers in 1996 (vs. Colorado)…since the NHL assumed control of the Stanley Cup Finals after the 1926 season, the Ducks were only the fourth team in league history from the Pacific Time Zone to reach the Finals (Vancouver in 1994 and 1982, Los Angeles in 1993).

Team Defense Leads To NHL Record:

The Ducks set an NHL record in their Western Conference Finals series vs. Minnesota, allowing the fewest goals against in a best-of-7 series by allowing just a single marker to the Wild...Andrew Brunette scored at 4:37 of the first period in Game Four to notch the first Minnesota goal...the 1935 Toronto Maple Leafs and 1952 Detroit Red Wings each surrendered two goals in four-game series.

Overtime Magic For Ducks in 2003:

The Ducks went 7-0 in overtime in the 2003 playoffs, becoming the first team in NHL playoff history to go undefeated in OT when playing in at least six such contests…the seven consecutive overtime wins was second only to the 1993 Canadiens (10) for consecutive OT wins during one playoff season (Montreal finished 10-1 in OT)… Anaheim was the first team in NHL history to win four games in overtime in their first six postseason contests (Ducks were also the sixth team in NHL history to PLAY in four OT games in the first six playoff contests...the Ducks also became the first team since the 1994 Vancouver Canucks (April 26-30) to win three straight playoff games in overtime (no team has ever won four straight)...the Ducks won three straight spanning Game 4 of the conference Quarter-Finals (Apr. 16) and Games 1 & 2 of the conference Semi-Finals (Apr. 24-26)…the Ducks had six different goal scorers in the seven overtime games (Sykora had two; Kariya, Rucchin, Leclerc, Thomas and Salei had one).

Ducks Take Care Of Business At Home:

The Ducks finished 9-1 at home in the playoffs, including seven-straight home wins to end the postseason (second longest of '03 playoffs, behind New Jersey's eight)…the club's only loss was a 2-1 setback to Dallas in Game 3 of the Conf. Semifinals…the Ducks earned a record of 3-1 in Game 3, 4-0 in Game Four and 2-0 in Game 6…the club out-scored the opposition 26-to-13 at home this postseason…the Ducks allowed one-goal-or-fewer on five occasions.

Winning the Close Ones:

The Ducks had a remarkable 12-1 record in the 2003 playoffs in games decided by one goal-or-less…the 12 one-goal wins tied the most in league history during one playoff year (also 1993 Canadiens)... The Ducks two-goal win in Game 1 of the Western Conference Finals broke a string of nine consecutive wins by a one-goal margin (4/10/03 - 5/10/03), which broke the record for one playoff year...the previous record was seven, done twice before (1989 Canadiens and 2001 Kings)... five of the games needed overtime to be decided… the Ducks eight consecutive one-goal decisions to start the playoffs tied the record for one playoff year (1989 Canadiens).

Off and Running:

The Ducks began the playoffs on a six-game winning streak, which was the longest of the 2003 playoffs….by going 6-0 vs. Detroit and Dallas, Anaheim became the first team in NHL history to win six-straight games to start the playoffs vs. teams that had over 100+ points in the regular season...in addition, the Ducks joined the former Minnesota North Stars (now Dallas Stars) as the only teams in NHL history to start the postseason as a road team and win six-straight...the North Stars won six straight from April 8-19, 1981.

Giguere Makes History in OT:

J.S. Giguere owns the longest scoreless OT minutes streak in NHL playoff history...he surpassed Patrick Roy to set an NHL record in Game 3 vs. New Jersey and has a current streak of 168:27...with three shutouts vs. Minnesota in the Conference Finals, Giguere was the sixth netminder in NHL history to record three consecutive playoff shutouts and the first to do so in the Conference Finals or NHL Semifinals...Giguere joined Clint Benedict (Montreal Maroons, 1926), John Ross Roach (New York Rangers, 1929), Frank McCool (Toronto, 1945), Brent Johnson (St. Louis, 2002) and Patrick Lalime (Ottawa, 2002) for that record...he also tied an NHL Playoff Record for most shutouts in a series, set eight times previously, including twice last season by Brent Johnson (St. Louis) and Patrick Lalime (Ottawa)...below is closer look:

The Mighty Ducks fell to the Coyotes,@ the Arrowhead Pond to trail the best-of-seven series, 3-2. Phoenix took a 1-0 lead late in the first period on Keith Tkachuk's fourth goal of the series. Anaheim tied the score at the 17:37 mark of the first period when Teemu Selanne netted his fourth goal of the playoffs. Selanne's goal ended a drought in which the Mighty Ducks had not scored in 118:48 (previous Anaheim goal was by Paul Kariya at the 18:49 mark of the first period in Game Three). The Coyotes scored the next two goals before Selanne earned his second goal of the game to cut the deficit to 3-2. Bob Corkum scored his second goal of the series and Keith Tkachuk added an empty net goal to give Phoenix the 5-2 decision. Guy Hebert stopped 19-of-23 shots, taking the loss.

Game Six @ Phoenix (April 27), Anaheim 3, Phoenix 2 (OT):

The Mighty Ducks defeated Phoenix in overtime to even the series at 3-3. Paul Kariya scored his fourth goal of the playoffs and Brian Bellows added his first of the series to give Anaheim a 2-0 lead after two periods. Darrin Shannon scored midway through the third period to cut the Ducks' lead to 2-1, followed by Keith Tkachuk's sixth goal of the playoffs tying the score at 2-2 and sending the game into overtime. In the extra period, Teemu Selanne lofted a long, high pass that Kariya controlled and fired past Nikolai Khabibulin at the 7:29 mark of overtime to give Anaheim the 3-2 victory. Dmitri Mironov added two assists for the Mighty Ducks and Steve Rucchin earned his first-ever playoff point, assisting on Kariya's game-winner.

Game Seven @ Anaheim (April 29), Anaheim 3, Phoenix 0:

Guy Hebert stopped all 31 shots he faced in earning his first-ever playoff shutout. David Karpa scored the series-winning goal just 3:11 into the game while Steve Rucchin and Joe Sacco added goals in the second period to lead the Ducks' offense. All three scores marked each player's first goals of the playoffs. Karpa finished the game with 1-1=2 points in a game that saw only three penalties called. Anaheim became only the seventh team in NHL history to win its first-ever playoff series.

Paul Kariya celebrates his OT game-winning goal in Game Six

After defeating Phoenix in the first round, Anaheim was matched up with the number three seed in the West, the Detroit Red Wings. The Mighty Ducks had defeated the Red Wings, 3-0-1, in the regular season series. The playoff series between the two would have a different result, with Detroit winning the first four games, eliminating Anaheim from the 1997 Stanley Cup Playoffs. Though Detroit officially earned a sweep in the series, it was a lot closer than the numbers would indicate. Three of the games went into overtime, including one that went into double overtime and one that went into triple overtime. The goaltenders were the stars of the series, with Guy Hebert, Mikhail Shtalenkov and Mike Vernon combining for 333 total saves on 354 total shots (.941 SV%). Paul Kariya (2-2=4) and Dmitri Mironov (0-4=4) led Anaheim in scoring for the playoff series while Sergei Fedorov (2-3=5), Vyacheslav Kozlov (3-1=4), and Vladimir Konstantinov (0-4=4) led Detroit in scoring.

Game One @ Detroit (May 2), Detroit 2, Anaheim 1 (OT):

The Mighty Ducks were defeated by Detroit in Game One @ Joe Louis Arena, giving the Red Wings a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven series. The game was scoreless until the 19:00 mark of the second period, when Paul Kariya scored his sixth goal of the playoffs to give Anaheim a 1-0 lead. Detroit evened the score midway through the third period, with Sergei Fedorov scoring his first goal of the post-season, sending the game into overtime. Fedorov's goal was Detroit's first goal vs. Anaheim since March 12 @ the Arrowhead Pond, snapping the Mighty Ducks' shutout streak vs. the Red Wings at 145:13. The goal was also the first allowed by Hebert in the playoffs since Game 6 of the Quarterfinals @ Phoenix (a span of 120:46). In the extra period, Martin Lapointe scored on a two-on-one break just 59 seconds into overtime to give the Red Wings the 2-1 win. Guy Hebert stopped 28-of-30 shots, taking the loss.

Game Two @ Detroit (May 4), Detroit 3, Anaheim 2 (3 OT):

The Mighty Ducks played the longest game in team history (since surpassed), going into three overtime periods before dropping a 3-2 decision to the Red Wings. Vyacheslav Kozlov scored a power play goal at the 1:31 mark of the third overtime to give Detroit the win. There were 101:31 minutes of hockey played in the game that began at 2:08 p.m. and ended at 7:39 p.m. The two clubs combined for 122 shots (Wings - 71, Ducks - 51), the third-most shots by two teams in NHL playoff history. Detroit's 71 shots rank third all-time for one team. These rankings are since 1963 - the earliest year Elias Sports Bureau can research the stat. Kozlov's power play goal marked Detroit's first goal with a man-advantage vs. Anaheim this season (the Ducks had stopped all 22 Wings power plays faced this season before Kozlov's score). Mikhail Shtalenkov stopped 38-of-40 shots in relief of Guy Hebert, who left the game due to injury (Shtalenkov entered the game at the 7:02 mark of the third period). Jari Kurri scored his first goal of the playoffs while Teemu Selanne added his sixth of the post-season with just 3:07 left in regulation to send the game into overtime.

Game Three @ Anaheim (May 6), Detroit 5, Anaheim 3:

The Red Wings came back from deficits of 2-0 and 3-1 to take a 5-3 win in Game Three @ the Arrowhead Pond. Anaheim took an early 2-0 lead on power play goals from Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne in the first period. Ted Drury scored early in the second to give Anaheim a 3-1 lead, but the Red Wings scored two goals to knot the score at three entering the third period. Detroit outshot Anaheim, 23-6, in the second period and 49-23 in the game. Sergei Fedorov and Vyacheslav Kozlov scored two goals just 24 seconds apart at the beginning of the third to give the Wings their third win of the series. Kariya (1-1=2) and J.J. Daigneault (0-2=2) had multiple-point games for the Mighty Ducks. Mikhail Shtalenkov, starting in place of injured Guy Hebert, stopped 44-of-49 shots in the loss (career-highs in both saves and shots until Game Four).

Game Four @ Anaheim (May 8), Detroit 3, Anaheim 2 (2 OT):

The Red Wings defeated the Mighty Ducks, 3-2 in double overtime, to sweep the best-of-seven series, 4-0. Joe Sacco and Brian Bellows each scored their first goals of the series to give Anaheim a 2-1 lead after two periods. Nicklas Lidstrom scored for Detroit at the 9:09 mark of the third period, sending the game into overtime. After a scoreless first overtime, Brendan Shanahan scored the game-winner for the Red Wings at the 17:05 mark of the second overtime, sending Detroit to the Western Conference Finals for the third-straight season. Paul Kariya picked up an assist, giving him 2-2=4 points in the series and 7-6=13 points in the playoffs to lead the Mighty Ducks. Dmitri Mironov assisted on Brian Bellows' goal, finishing second on the club with 1-10=11 points. Ken Baumgartner assisted on Sacco's goal, earning his first point of the post-season. Mikhail Shtalenkov stopped 70-of-73 shots in the loss. The 70 saves rank tied-for-second for saves in one NHL playoff game (record is 73) while Detroit's 73 shots rank second all-time for one NHL playoff game (record is 75). These rankings are since 1963 - the earliest year Elias Sports Bureau can research the stat. Over the final three games of the series, Shtalenkov faced 162 shots (54 shots per game), stopping 152 (.938 SV%).

BACKCHECKING: Forwards in the enemy zone skate back to their own end of the ice to protect their goal and prevent the opponent from shooting.

BOARDING: Violently checking an opponent into the boards. Illegal and calls for a penalty.

BODY CHECK: Slowing or stopping an opponent with the puck by using hip or shoulder. This is legal.

BREAKAWAY: No opponent between the puck carrier and the opposition's goal except the goalie.

BUTT-ENDING: To hit an opponent with the end of the stick farthest from the blade. Illegal and calls for a penalty.

CHARGING: Taking more than three strides before checking an opponent constitutes charging. Illegal and calls for a penalty.

CROSS-CHECKING: To hit an opponent with both hands on the stick and no part of the stick on the ice. Illegal and calls for a penalty.

DROP PASS: Puck carrier leaves the puck behind to be picked up by a tailing teammate.

FORECHECKING: Hustling in the opponent's defensive zone by the forwards who want to keep the puck there and hopefully take it away.

HEAD-MANNING: When a player passes the puck forward to an attacking teammate.

(e.g. "He went for the five hole on that shot.").

FREEZING THE PUCK: Pinning the puck against the boards with either the stick and/or skates.

GAME MISCONDUCT: A penalty called on an individual that disqualifies him for the rest of the game.

HOLDING: To use your hands on an opponent or his equipment. Illegal and calls for a penalty.

ICING THE PUCK: Shooting the puck from behind the center red line across the opponent's red line. Legal only when icing team is shorthanded. Otherwise a face-off is called deep in offender's zone.

INTERFERENCE: Body contact with opponent who doesn't have the puck (or the last man to have touched the puck). Also called for knocking an opponent's fallen stick out of his reach. Illegal and calls for a penalty.

MAJOR PENALTY: A five-minute penalty. A major penalty is assessed for fighting as well as flagrant minor infractions, such as high-sticking, that result in injury.

MINOR PENALTY: A two-minute penalty. Minor penalties include holding, hooking, interference, delay of game, cross-checking and highsticking.

MISCONDUCT PENALTY: A 10-minute penalty called against an individual. Substitutes are permitted. Called for insubordination or when a player incurs second major penalty in a game.

ONE-TIMER: An offensive player accepts a pass from a teammate and attempts a slap shot in the same motion.

OFF-SIDE: Called when an attacking player precedes the puck across the opponent's blue line. Illegal and calls for stoppage of play and a face-off.

PENALTY SHOT: A penalty shot is a one-on-one showdown between an offensive player and the goalie. Penalty shots are called when a player is fouled from behind and denied a breakaway scoring opportunity. They are also called for deliberately displacing the goal post during a breakaway, or when a defending player other than the goalie falls on the puck.

POINT: A position just inside the opposition blue line usually manned by defensemen when their team is in control of the puck in the opposition's zone.

POKE CHECK: To dislodge the puck from an opponent by stabbing at it with the blade of a stick. This is legal.

POWER PLAY: Occurs when a team has a one-or-two-man advantage because of penalties. Teams often use four forwards and one defenseman in this situation.

SCREEN SHOT: A shot the goalie has difficulty seeing because one or more players are between him and the shooter.

SLASHING: To swing stick at an opponent. Illegal and calls for a penalty, even if contact isn't made.

SPEARING: To use the stick like a spear. Illegal and calls for a five-minute major penalty.

SWEEP CHECK: To use the entire length of the stick with a sweeping motion while laying it flat on the ice in order to dislodge the puck from an opponent. This is legal.

TOP-SHELF: Placing the puck above either shoulder of the goalie in a scoring attempt. (e.g. "He went top-shelf in scoring that goal.")

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout

ASSIST ..... An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

GAME PLAYED..... A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

GAME-WINNING GOAL..... After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning Club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

GOAL..... A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring Club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

GOALTENDER..... A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

PENALTY-KILLING PCT..... Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

PLUS-MINUS..... A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his Club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

POWER-PLAY GOAL..... A goal scored by a Club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a Club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that Club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a Club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a Club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

SHORTHAND GOAL ..... A goal scored by a Club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

SHOT ON GOAL..... If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

SHUTOUT..... If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a Club shutout.

TENTHS OF A SECOND ..... If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

COACHES RECORD..... A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.
